MURPHY LEADS OFF

Five of the 28 races contested, at the Claveland grand circuit meeting, were won by horses in Murphy's stable. Royal Mack, who is making his third trip down the line, broke the ice on the second day, when he defeated Peter Juna and half a dozen others in 2:0714. He was followed by the San Francisco pair, Fenesta and Sanardo, the western trotter Mariondale and Constan-pair. Fonesia and Sanardo, the western trotter Mariondale and Constanting the Great by Asoff. With his other starters. Murphy finished second with Lucille Marvester to Mr. Dudley, when Lyman Brusle won the half-mile dash for two-year-old trotters in 1:29%, while third places in the summaries were assigned Directum J. in the free-for-all pace which Allen won in 2:28% with Single G. Harmony and the three-year-old colt Brusloff.

Valenting had three winners at Cleveland, his successful mounts being Flora A. Peter Coley and The Substance. Geers also had a very busy week. Of his ten starters, he won with the two-year-old trotter, Frodigal Watts and the pacer Goldie Todd. in 2:01%. He also stood second in the summaries with Peter June, Mamie Lock and Dudette and fourth with Kerrigan. Tallahatchie, Don de Lopes and Melly Knight. The last named is a three-year-old and as she was at Fred Hyde's wheel in 2:06% when he won with Joseph Guy, the Geers family will be close to the king row with Unis filly when the big faturities are being decided later in the season. Tombighee his other three-year-old was given alline record of 2:09% and turned out. He has a world of speed but is shy on racing manners.

ened later in the season. Tombigbee his other three-year-old was given alline record of 2:09 % and turned out. He has a world of speed but he shy on racing manners.

Notwithstanding the sickness, when he a crimp in his stable, Cox made his presence felt at Cleveland, by winning his third Edwards purse with Frank Dewey in 2:04%, his other leaders in that event being A Game of Cluance and bel Rey. He also came Grough in front with Mignola, finished second with McGregor the Great, winning a heat in 2:06%, third with Busy's Lassie, and fourth with Jess Y.

The bleasander feature in connection with the Cleveland meeting was the return of W. J. Andrews to the sulky. On his first appearance he won the three-year-old trot with Abble Putney in 2:06% and on his second behind Mary Coburn forced Allie Lou out in 2:04% in the first heat of the Ohio purse which Stokes finally won with Brescia.

The balance of the first monies at Cleveland were scattered all over the field. Dick McMahon landed one with Belle Alcantara, in 2:03% and Earl Beck accured another with Grace Direct in 2:04%, it being the sixth placed to her credit this season. On the last day of the meeting, Whitehead won a plendid race with Miss Woodbine from Tourny Tods and Emma Magewan, while Pallin gathered in a first with Eva Abbe in 2:04% and a second in the free-for-alipace with Verile Patchen. McDevitt showed in front of The Toddler and Wilkes Brewer, with the useful geiding Prince Lores in 2:06%, while Berry dropped in free the half-mile tracks and won with 'harles Penn in 207%.

On the first day of the meeting Forrest Park Farm showed a futurity candidate when Fleming won the mile dash with Kentucky June in 2:19. She is by Manrico out of the dam of Peter June and Harvest Lad, both of which also started at the meeting. Laurel Hall also aired a clever two-year-old when Henry Thomas wen with Natalie the Great from Dudetts in 2:15%.

San Francisco was the only sire credited with three winners at the Cleveland meeting. Peter the Great, however, had a strong rep

Roger Peckinpaugh, after being out with an injury for more than a week, showed that he needed the rest by the way he has come back. He is hitting harder than he ever did in his life and fielding like a youngster. He holds the American league record for the season for consecutive game hitting, having gone 16 games without a blank in his hit column. It was on June 5 that he missed with Eddle Cleotte stopping him. George Sisler, premier first baseman, was out of the lineup of the St. Loub Browns for several games because of an injury in the eye with a bail during practice. Bill Jacobson played first as Sisier's substitute and Earl Smith thus got a chance to show in the outfield, where he performed noby, but net with any hope of retaining the position over Jacobson, who continues one of the big factors in such success as the Browns are having.

M. A. A. TENNIS.

The Memphis Associated Amateurs tennis tournament started at Hodges field Thursday afternoon with Hansome defeating Bowen in the men's singles two sets out of three, scores 6-0, 4-6 and 6-2 while Elmore defeated Fonville 6-0 in two straight sets by the same score.

The following—singles matches are scheduled for play at Hodges field Friday afternoon, all starting at 6:15 p. m.:

8. Allenberg vs. Leppert, Sr. George Yerger vs. W. B. Brown, Jr. Leppert, Jr., vs. P. Pidgeon, Everetts vs. M. Allenberg.

Tennis Director Hodges has 22 entrants in the men's singles competing for the lovely tennis racket offered the winner as the Memphis Tennis clib, white the Goubles have 50 entrants or over and start, new Monday. Entries are still asked for by Tennis Director Hodges in the ladles' singles and mixed doubles. Entry can be secured on application to Hodges, who will supervise the tournaments which are now going on.

Roger Peckinpaugh copped the honors for consecutive game hitting when he reached 21 games on July 2. Babe Ruth had run fils string to 20 when he was stopped. In the National league Southworth made the season's record by going 18 games.

behind him is heard the clattering of Joe Jackson, who has taken a fresh start and seems inclined to regain the honors that he thinks are his by right.

Here is Arthur Gribble, first baseman of the Chero-Colas, of the Dixle league. Certainly there is not at this time a more nifty looking first sacker in the junior circles than Gribble. His fielding has been fishely and his headwork has been helpful in many cases to the Chero-Colas' cause and aided them in getting to the top of the league. He is also a dangerous hitter.

FOUR CLUBS AFTER

Quaker owners refused to let Pat go.

"Moran will be a great manager some day," said Chance, when the Philips had turned down his offer. He knows baseball, is a hard, worker and is well fiked by the players, because he is fair and square. Needham, iso, will make good in the big lesgues if he gets an opportunity.

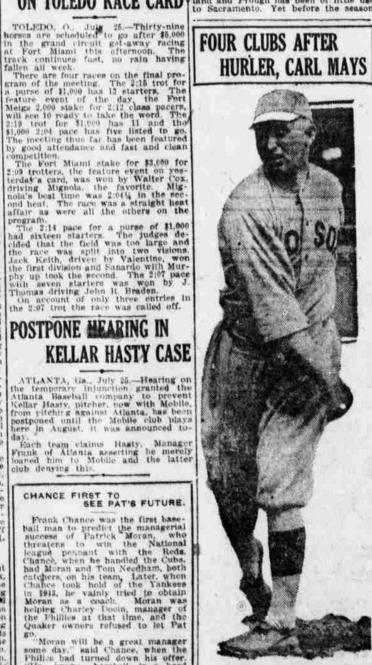

Needless to add that Chance still to pulling for Moran and also is wonderling why Needham is idle.

Detroit fans are inclined to think Howard Ehmke should have had a no hit game against Cleveland recently. The blow scored as a hit was a grounder to Bush, who was anxious to make a double play and did not get a good hold on the ball, fumbling it. The official scorer said he did not have a fair chance to field it and counted it a hit against Ehmke, but as a matter of fact Bush had two plays in front of him had he held to the ball.

The injury to Hack Miller not only was a blow to Oakland, but to the whole Coast league, comments a Los Angeles scribe. Miller, he goes on to say, was one of the big drawing cards of the circuit because of his splendid hittin. On that basis the league would have to close up if anything hap pened to Earl Sheely.

The Vernon club has prospered so this season that there is talk of it building a new ball park in some other section of Los Angeles than savory Vernon, where it can play all its home games. It is reported that a site has been selected tentatively and that it is pretty sure the park will be built before the opening of the 1920 season.

Talking about comebacks, there's Tom Seaton, who pitched a neat one-hit game on June 8 for San Francisco against the Angels. It was the second game of the regular Sunday bill and evened up somewhat for the one-sided game the Seals had lost in the morning. The only hit off Seaton was a scretch by Kenworthy in the fifth in-ning.

Having secured the valuable services of Al Wickland for his outfield, Mana-ger Miller Huggins of the Yankees has released Outfielder Bill Lamar to the Red Box at the waiver price. One deal

Red Sox at the waiver price. One deal looks as good as the other.

One of the surprising things of the season is the way the Philadelphia fans have turned out to see the Athletics lose. The support has been such as to lead to the opinion that if the A's could win more consistently, baseball would come back in Philadelphia.

would come back in Philadelphia.

Kid Gleason is quoted as saying that Eddie Cleotte has everything that a pitcher ahould have. Other clubs will agree and add that he also has something that no pitcher should be allowed to have. But what it is remains a dark secret. And yet, if it is so mysterious, why is it that players leaving the White Sox for other clubs don't tip it off and make the information general?

off and make the information general?

Connie Mack trade off Bobby Roth?

Then where would the Athletics be? The work of Roth is a feature in most every game won by the A's. On June 9, his bat won a game from Cleveland. On June 10 he beat the Browns when he tripled with the bases full. And so on and so on. Roth bertainly is a bad actor under the Mackian system of handling them—bad for the opposing teams.

Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, has claimed Pitcher Willie Mitchell from Detroit on walvers, not waiting for Willie to be sent to a minor league club, from which he could get him for a knockdown price, as in the case of Al Wickiand, outfielder, who was waived out, then sent to St. Paul by Boston, and purchased from the St. Paul club by the economical Huggins.

Huggins.

The tenure of the New York Yankees in first place was brief. The Browns knocked them out by handing liem a 1 to 0 beating on June 15, before a big crowd at the Polo grounds. It was another hard luck lose for Jack Quinn. After losing one game by a wild pitch he lost this one by hitting a batter, that mishap being followed by a three-base hit that scored the only run of the game.

Sammy Crane, now with Indianapolis, put in a claim with the National Commission for railroad fare alleged to be due him from the Atiants club. The commission awarded the claim and instructed Atiants to pay through the secretary of the commission by check. Doubtless this will be taken as more evidence of the tyranny of the N. C. toward the mino-

BARNES LEADING IN FAMOUS JOCKEY TO RIDE FOR MOVIES. WESTERN OPEN MEET

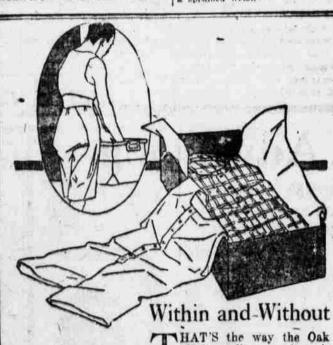

CLEVELAND, July 25.—Sixty-five I eading golfers of the United States played the final 36 holes for the Western open golf championship at the Mayfield Country club today. The title-holder, James Barnos of St. Louis, had a lead of four strokes on his nearest competitor, Walter Hagen, national champion, as a result of the first two reunds in which he scored 69 and 70 to Hagen's 71 and 72. Only two strokes separated Fred McLeod of Washington from Hagen and 14 players took fewer than 15e strokes for the first 36 holes, while the highest score to qualify for the final 36 holes was 160.

Barnes started late with J. Douglas Edgar of Atlanta as partner and they could not finish the final round before 5 o'clock. Edgar scored a 71 yesterday, one over par, tieing with McDonald of Chicago for second best score of the day.
